Restoration/Relocation: "Mr Red" by David Langley

- After damage from multiple hurricanes, the sculpture required significant restoration and relocation to a safer site (City Hall).
- Restored by Jon Dowd.

Your Feedback Wanted: "Mr. Red" Replacement Sculpture

- A replica of Mr. Red in a more durable material?
- A new companion piece inspired by Langley's original design?
- The relocation of another artwork from the City's collection that would benefit from the Gulfstream site?
- Or an entirely new sculpture that reflects Sarasota's artistic energy and resilience in a fresh way?

“Public Art in Motion Day”

City Commission Proclamation presented December 1, 2025

City of Sarasota Proclamation

WHEREAS, the City of Sarasota Public Art Program, in partnership with Fresh Fridays, presented a first-of-its-kind projection mapping art installation on the Palm Avenue Parking Garage on November 7, 2025, transforming the structure into a dynamic, light-based work of public art; and

WHEREAS, the installation was created by students in the Department of Motion Design at Ringling College of Art and Design, under the guidance of faculty member Dante Rinaldi, showcasing the students' creativity, technical expertise, and innovation; and

WHEREAS, the City of Sarasota gratefully acknowledges the essential support of Barco, Inc., for providing a high-powered 4K projector, LightMural, for technical expertise, and the collaboration of Fresh Fridays, its organizer NextMark, the Sarasota Downtown Improvement District, and Bay Plaza, whose partnership helped make this event possible; and

WHEREAS, this project stands as a shining example of partnership between the City, educational institutions, private industry, and community organizations, advancing Sarasota's identity as a city that celebrates creativity, technology, and public art.

NOW, THEREFORE, the City Commission of the City of Sarasota, Florida, and on behalf of the citizens of our community, takes great pride in recognizing December 1, 2025 as

“PUBLIC ART IN MOTION DAY”

A day of special importance and worthy of the recognition of the residents of the City of Sarasota.

“Harmony in Motion” Mural by Edward James Walsh at North Water Tower Park

The first Public Art installation for the Bayou Oaks Neighborhood.

The background of the image is a complex, abstract geometric pattern composed of numerous blue and white triangles. These triangles are arranged in a way that creates a sense of depth and motion, resembling a stylized sunburst or a microscopic view of a crystal lattice. The colors range from deep navy blue to bright white, with the white areas representing the spaces between the facets.

A Look Ahead...

THOMSEN
FINE ART

Regan Dunnick

- Internationally recognized illustrator
- Chair of Illustration, Ringling College of Art and Design
- Works in the permanent collection of the Library of Congress
- Sarasota-area works reflect deep familiarity with local history and landscape

Frank Hopper

- Acclaimed American realist painter
- Former U.S. Navy pilot; later served as a Navy combat artist
- Educated at the Art Institute of Chicago; MFA from Indiana University
- Known for large-scale historical murals and figurative realism
- Listed in Who's Who in American Art

"Bloom and Become" Mural by Annie Dong

- To be installed at Canned Ham Vintage (Park East Neighborhood/Limelight District)
- *Part of the Call for Walls Initiative

The background of the slide features a complex, abstract geometric pattern composed of numerous blue and light blue triangles. The triangles are arranged in a way that creates a sense of depth and movement, resembling a stylized sunburst or a microscopic view of a crystal structure. The overall effect is modern and professional.
